

AMEX

SPECIALIST IN PAYROLL, HR,
EMPLOYMENT STATUS

Our Approach

Amex specialises in payroll, HR, and employment status, providing businesses with comprehensive protection and compliance through our in-house expert teams.

As HMRC intensifies its scrutiny on the construction industry, particularly focusing on the employment status of self-employed workers, businesses may face increased risks. These workers are often perceived as more accessible targets for enforcement.

With Amex's robust framework, expertly crafted contracts, and dedicated specialist support, we help you navigate the complexities of employment status, ensuring compliance and mitigating potential challenges.

We are committed to guiding you through every step of the process, ensuring clarity and confidence in understanding each stage.
